Spring 2006 Student Science Research Presentations
Friday, May 5, 3 PM
in the Olin Teaching Theater

2:30 – 3 PM – Reception with cookies and drinks in the Olin Lobby

3 PM – Welcome and Introduction: Dr. David Pittman

3:05 – 3:20 PM
The Effect of Self-Awareness on Children's Peer Impression
Presented by: Courtney Abbott, Kiri Ferguson, Peaches Lipscomb, Kelsey Rogers, and Anya Young Research Mentor: Dr. Cecile McAninch, Associate Professor of Psychology

3:20 – 3:35 PM
Effects of Palatability on Food, Caloric, and Macronutrient Intake in a Three-Course Meal
Presented by: Tim Beckner, Michelle Bertling, Jai-Sheena Garnett, Allison Thomas, and Kim Trimble
Research Mentor: Dr. G.R. Davis, Professor of Biology

3:35 – 3:50 PM
The Role of Discriminative Stimuli in a 4-Lever Response Sequence
Presented by: Meaghan Crawley, Jordan Fanney, & Leandra Parris
Research Mentor: Dr. Alliston Reid, Professor of Psychology

3:50 – 4:05 PM
The Effects of Supplemental Stimuli within Response Sequences
Presented by: Kim Collins
Research Mentor: Dr. Alliston Reid, Professor of Psychology

4:05 – 4:20 PM
Stimulus Value in Higher Order Sign Tracking
Presented by: Lauren Bayne, Mo Roberts, Becky Sasso
Research Mentor: Dr. Alliston Reid, Professor of Psychology

Each presentation will be 10-12 minutes with 3-5 minutes for questions from the audience.
All presentation times are estimated and subject to change.