Spring 2011 Student Science Research Presentations
Friday, May 13, 2 PM
in the Olin Teaching Theater

2–2:10 PM Reception with refreshments in the Olin Lobby with student researchers present to discuss their projects.

2:10-3:30 PM – Student Presentations:

Survey of Upstate Veterans, preliminary results
Presented by: Luisa Gonzalez and David Trant
Research Mentor: Dr. John Lefebvre, Professor of Psychology and Craig Burnette, PhD

How do changes in guiding cues affect skill learning in pigeons?
Presented by: Alexandra Smith, Covington Avent, Sarah Gallagher, Samantha Flowers, Hannah Rapport, & Hunter Rackett
Research Mentor: Dr. Alliston Reid, Professor of Psychology

Comparing antioxidant power of super-fruit supplements
Presented by: Kristin Demosthenes
Research Mentor: Dr. Bryan Splawn, Assistant Professor of Chemistry

Assessment of the reliability and validity of the repetition-detection task
Presented by: Luisa Gonzalez, Mary Beirne Taylor, Ayat Tayebi and Ben Wilmoth
Research Mentor: Dr. Kara Bopp, Assistant Professor of Psychology

The effects of popularity and outcome dependency on impression formation in children
Presented by: Caitlin Dodd, Stephyn Duck, Emily Knight, and Nikki Siebert
Research Mentor: Dr. Cecile Nowatka, Associate Professor of Psychology

Each presentation will be 10-12 minutes with 3-5 minutes for questions from the audience.